

Canada Summer Jobs - Employee Consent Form

The information collected in this form will be used to determine your eligibility for Canada Summer Jobs (CSJ) and for subsequent analysis, research or evaluation purposes. Completion of this form is mandatory.

Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC), on behalf of the Government of Canada, is responsible for the evaluation of the Youth Employment and Skills Strategy (YESS) programs in order to ascertain how beneficial these are to YESS participants. You are being asked to complete this form because your employer is approved to receive government funding in order to create this work experience. In order to conduct the evaluation activities, your Social Insurance Number will be used to link your employment and income information from ESDC and other sources (i.e. Canada Revenue Agency for income level). Accurate information is essential for ESDC to evaluate the program and conduct participant surveys to ensure that the YESS programs meet your needs. ESDC will also use this information for ESDC YESS program file management and reporting of ESDC's YESS program results. If you have any questions or concerns throughout this employment, please feel free to contact Service Canada: (<https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/corporate/contact/canada-summer-jobs.html>).

The collection and use of your information by ESDC is allowed by the Department of Employment and Social Development Act. The information collected and its retention period are described in the Personal Information Bank ESDC PPU 706.

The information is handled according to the Privacy Act which gives you the right to access and correct your personal information.

Canada Summer Jobs Basic Eligibility Criteria

Employee must:

- Be between 15 and 30 years of age at the start of the employment.
- Be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person who has been granted refugee status in Canada under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.
- Be legally entitled to work in Canada in accordance with relevant provincial or territorial legislation and regulations. International students are not eligible participants. Recent immigrants are eligible if they are Canadian citizens or permanent residents.

Definitions

Recent Immigrant: is a person who has moved from their country of origin (their homeland) to another country to become a citizen of that country and has been in that country for less than 5 years.

Refugee: is a person who has been forced to leave their country in order to escape war, persecution, or natural disaster.

Employee Information

The employer may complete this section on behalf of the employee, provided the employee reviews the information and signs the paper copy of the form, as proof of consent to share the information with ESDC. A copy of the signed consent must be maintained in the employer's files and may be verified when the project is monitored.

It is mandatory to provide the employee's contact and personal information as identified at the beginning of this section. The name of the employee entered should match the name used on their SIN card as this will be used to verify eligibility.

Responding to the questions on Gender, Member of a visible minority, Person with disability, Indigenous group, and Recent immigrant is mandatory, and is requested for program evaluation purposes.

As mentioned above, the Employee Consent to Release Information section must be signed and dated by the employee as this is the consent to release to ESDC officials the information contained in the form.
