

How to use this form:

- You can apply for a fee waiver online with your Application for Dispute Resolution.
- If you are submitting a paper Application for Dispute Resolution and would like a fee waiver, you must submit this form with your application in person at a Service BC Centre that accepts Residential Tenancy Branch (RTB) forms or the Burnaby RTB office.

Important information about this application:

- Applicants must pay a filing fee when they submit an Application for Dispute Resolution.
- If you have low income or unforeseen extraordinary expenses that would make paying the filing fee a hardship, you can apply to have the filing fee waived.
- You must provide information to support your request for a fee waiver, including information about your household size, your household monthly income, whether you are enrolled in an income assistance program, and any extraordinary expenses you incurred recently, depending on the reason you are requesting a fee waiver.
